

Today, Light for Ukraine is based in Kyiv, sharing the Light of the Gospel with people from all walks of life. We follow the Great Commission - planting churches that multiply and send missionaries ...

Apparently, the Trump administration's recent pro-war shift is not limited to the Middle East. The Republican administration seems increasingly yielding to the interests of the military lobby and ...

LONDON -- Millions of Ukrainians have been plunged into frequent darkness and cold as Russian drones and missiles wage a systematic long-range campaign against the country's energy ...

Bird of Light Ukraine shines a light on resilience -- restoring dignity, health, and hope by bridging Western support with local-led efforts, supporting communities to rise and rebuild together.

Our entire lives shrink to fit the few hours of available light. Despite these difficulties, Ukrainians persevere and have become globally known for their resilience. But behind that facade...

Discover the resilience and faith of youth in Ukraine as they face war's challenges while nurturing hope and community with The Salvation Army.

We want to see Ukraine rise from the ashes, not just restored, but transformed into a country greater than ever--admired by the world for its strength, integrity, and courage.

Despite the challenges posed by the war and occupation in Ukraine, we have persevered. While we lost some churches and mission points, we are grateful for new outlets emerging as ministers from ...

Back then, justice never came. Today, Ukrainians cannot afford to lose another battle for accountability. As discussions about a possible peace deal unfold, Ukraine and its allies must not ...

For the past three years, "A Light for Ukraine" humanitarian mission has been instrumental in bringing vital aid and the light of hope to children with special needs residing in the frontline regions and ...

Web: <https://busydoniemiecwaldii.pl>